Cato Ridge is a town in the Ethekwini Metropolitan Municipality as a suburb of the Outer West region. It is situated some 30 km south-east of Pietermaritzburg and 50 km north-west of Durban in the Valley of a Thousand Hills. Named after George Christopher Cato (1814-1893), the first mayor of Durban.[2]
The area is quickly becoming a popular manufacturing and logistics node, as it is ideally located on the primary western corridor,
